SUMMARY

In the Matter of: Gibraltar Precious Metals Corp., Louis Sorrentino, Grenna Corp., and Gregory Groeller
ODS File No. 11-034

In order to resolve the issues raised in the Department's investigation into the activities of Gibraltar Precious Metals Corp. (GPM), Louis Sorrentino (Sorrentino), Grenna Corp. (Grenna), and Gregory Groeller (Groeller) (collectively, "Respondents"), the Department entered into an agreement on November 17, 2011, wherein Respondents agreed to the issuance of an order to cease and desist transacting business as an agent, issuer, broker-dealer, investment adviser and/or investment adviser representative or otherwise engaging in the offer and/or sale of securities in and/or from Oklahoma. GPM and/or Grenna agreed to refund the sum of $20,573.28 to an Oklahoma investor. On the same date, the Administrator issued an order implementing the provisions of the agreement.

In the Matter of: Geary Securities, Inc. fka Capital West Securities, Inc.; Keith D. Geary; Norman Frager; and CEMP, LLC
ODS File No. 09-141

On March 8, 2010, the Administrator of the Department issued an Order Initiating Investigation against Geary Securities, Inc. and Keith D. Geary, both of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. The Order was premised upon information that violations of the Act and/or the Rules of the Oklahoma Securities Commission and the Administrator of the Department of Securities (Rules) may have occurred, in connection with the offer and/or sale of securities by Respondents.

On September 22, 2010, the Administrator of the Department issued a notice of opportunity for hearing on an Enforcement Division Recommendation (Recommendation) against Geary Securities, Inc. aka Capital West Securities, Inc.; Keith D. Geary; Norman Frager; and CEMP, LLC (collectively, "Respondents"). The Recommendation alleged Respondents violated Sections 1-401, 1-402 and/or 1-501 of the Act and 660:11-5-42 of the Rules, in connection with the offer and/or sale of securities in and/or from Oklahoma.

October 15, 2010, Respondents filed their answers and requested a hearing.

On November 9, 2010, the Administrator issued an order setting a hearing date of February 23, 2011, and appointing Bruce Kohl, of Santa Fe, New Mexico, as hearing officer.

On December 7, 2010, the Department issued discovery requests to Respondent Keith Geary. On December 14, 2010, the Hearing Officer filed an Agreed Scheduling Order. On December 22, 2010, the Department filed its preliminary list of witnesses and exhibits. On December 22, 2010, the Department received Keith Geary's response to the Department's discovery requests. On December 23, 2010, the Department received a request for production of documents from Geary Securities. On December 23, 2010, Respondents filed their preliminary list of witnesses and exhibits. On December 29, 2010, the Department received a second request for production of documents from Geary Securities.

On January 13, 2011, the Department responded to Geary Securities' second request for production of documents. On January 14, 2011, the Department responded to Geary Securities' first request for production of documents. On January 19, 2011, the Department filed an amended response to Geary Securities' first request for production of documents.

On February 14, 2011, an amended Scheduling Order was filed.

On March 1, 2011, Bank of Union, John Shelley, Mike Braun, and Tim Headington (Third Parties), filed a motion to quash subpoenas issued on behalf of the Geary Respondents and a request for a protective order. On March 7, 2011, the Department received a third request for production of documents from Geary Securities. On March 14, 2011, the Geary Respondents, joined by Respondent Norman Frager, filed a Motion to Strike Witnesses and Allegations, a Motion for Protective Order to Limit Scope of Depositions, Response and Objection to the Bank of Union's Motion to Quash, and an alternative Motion for Expedited Enforcement of Subpoena in the District Court. On March 15, 2011, the Department filed its response to the Geary Respondents' motions. On March 22, 2011, the Department responded to Geary Securities' third request for production of documents. On March 24, 2011, the Department filed a second amended response to Geary Securities' first request for production of documents. On March 24, 2011, the Hearing Officer entered orders denying the Third Parties' Motion to Quash and for Protective Order and an order denying Respondents' Motion to Strike Witnesses and Allegations, Motion for Protective Order to Limit Scope of Depositions, and Motion for Expedited Enforcement of Subpoena in the District Court. On March 25, the Department filed its final list of witnesses and exhibits. On March 25, 2011, the Geary Respondents filed an application for the judicial enforcement of subpoenas. On March 28, 2011, the Geary Respondents filed a motion for a preclusion order striking witnesses from the Department's final witness list based on the Department's non-compliance with the agreed amended scheduling order. On March 28, 2011, the Geary Respondents filed a Motion for Preclusion Order and Order Striking Witnesses and Allegations, and an Alternative Motion to Compel Production of Responsive Documents Wrongfully Withheld by the Department. On March 28, 2011, the Department filed its amended final list of witnesses. On March 28, 2011, the Geary Respondents filed their objection to the Department's amended final list of witnesses and renewed their request for a hearing on their motion for a preclusion order striking witnesses from the Department's final witness list.

On April 1, 2011, the Department filed its objection and response to the Geary Respondents' motion for a preclusion order striking witnesses from the Department's final witness list and their objection to the Department's amended final list of witnesses. On April 4, 2011, the Geary Respondents filed their reply to the Department's objection and response. On April 5, 2011, Norman Frager joined in the Geary Respondents' motions and objections filed March 28, 2011. On April 5, 2011, the Geary Respondents filed their joint final list of witnesses. On April 5, 2011, the Geary Respondents filed their joint application for modification of the scheduling order deadlines. On April 7, 2011, the Department filed its objection and response to the Geary Respondents' motion for preclusion order and order striking witnesses and allegations, and their alternative motion to compel production of responsive documents. On April 12, 2011, the Geary Respondents filed their reply to the Department's objection and response. On April 12, 2011, the Hearing Officer entered an order denying the Geary Respondents' motion for a preclusion and order striking witnesses from the Department's final witness list. On April 12, 2011, the Hearing Officer filed an Agreed Order Striking Scheduling Order Deadlines.

On May 6, 2011, a telephonic hearing was conducted relating to the discovery items in dispute. The Hearing Officer ruled that certain of the disputed items be submitted for his in camera inspection. On May 9, 2011, the Geary Respondents filed their response to the Department's first request for production of documents. On May 24, 2011, the Hearing Officer entered an Agreed Order relating to the procedures for the In Camera inspection. The Administrator subsequently determined that he would take no further action to enforce the subpoena issued to Tim Headington.

On July 13, 2011, the Geary Respondents filed a motion for reconsideration of the Administrator's refusal to proceed with enforcement of the Subpoena pursuant to the Order entered on March 24, 2011 by the Hearing Officer.

On August 1, 2011, the Geary Respondents filed an application to deem their motion for reconsidered confessed and granted. On August 4, 2011, the Administrator issued an order denying Respondents' application. On August 5, 2011, the Geary Respondents filed a motion for reconsideration and vacation of the order dated August 4, 2011. On August 5, 2011, the Geary Respondents filed an application for re-issuance of subpoenas to Tim Headington. On August 12, 2011, the Geary Respondents filed an application for the Administrator to take immediate action to enforce the District Court's order dated July 25, 2011, relating to the production of documents by Bank of Union, John Shelley and Mike Braun. On August 19, 2011, the Hearing Officer issued subpoenas to produce documents and to appear and testify to Tim Headington, David Tinsley, Earl Mills, Eldon Ventris, Jeff Wills, Ray Evans, and Steve Kotter.

On September 22, 2011, a Texas deposition subpoena was issued, on behalf of Respondents, to Tim Headington, a resident of Dallas, Texas. On September 27, 2011, John J. Schirger and Matthew W. Lytle, of the Kansas City law firm of Miller Schirger, LLC, filed a Motion for Temporary Admission and Entry of Appearance of Out of State Counsel. On September 28, 2011, Gary Bryant filed motions to associate counsel as to Mr. Schirger and Mr. Lytle.

On October 3, 2011, the Hearing Officer entered orders admitting John J. Schirger and Matthew W. Lytle to practice. On October 3, 2011, the Geary Respondents and Respondent Frager filed a motion for recusal of the Hearing Officer. On October 10, 2011, the Hearing Officer issued deposition subpoenas to Michael Braun and John Shelley. On October 10, 2011, the Department filed its objection to the motion for recusal of the Hearing Officer. On October 19, 2011, the Geary Respondents filed their reply to the Department's objection to the recusal motion. On October 21, 2011, the Hearing Officer entered an order denying the Respondents' motion for his recusal. On October 31, 2011, the Hearing Officer overruled the Department's objections to the Geary Respondents' outstanding discovery requests.

On November 1, 2011, the Department filed its motion for a summary decision against Norman Frager. On November 8, 2011, Norman Frager filed a motion for an extension of time in which to respond to the Department's motion. The motion was granted. The Geary Respondents filed motions for a preclusion order and an order striking certain of the Department's witnesses and exhibits. On November 21, 2011, the Department filed its objection and response to the Geary Respondents' motion for a preclusion order and an order striking certain of the Department's witnesses, i.e. the Bank of Union Directors, and an exhibit, the Bank of Union Directors' Affidavit. On November 28, 2011, the Department filed its objection and response to the Geary Respondents' motion for a preclusion order and an order striking the Headington Guaranty Agreement. On November 28, 2011, the Geary Respondents filed their reply to the Department's objection and response to the motion for a preclusion order and an order striking the Department's witnesses, the Bank of Union Directors, and the Bank of Union Directors' Affidavit.

On July 1, 2011, the Special Master filed his report for July 1, 2010 through May 31, 2011. On July 18, 2011, Judge Davis found Defendant Johnson guilty of indirect criminal contempt for failure to comply with the Permanent Injunction and Restitution Order and sentenced Johnson to 6 months confinement in the Oklahoma County jail and payment of a $500 fine.

On September 13, 2011, the Special Master filed a motion seeking court approval of a proposed distribution. A hearing date was set.

On October 17, 2011, the Special Master filed his final application for compensation and reimbursement of expenses. On October 21, 2011, the Special Master's Motion for Proposed Distribution was granted.

On November 18, 2011, Brian McKye was found guilty of securities fraud and conspiracy to commit money laundering after a jury trial in the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Oklahoma. Sentencing will be held at a later date.

U.S. Commodity Futures Trading Commission and the Oklahoma Department of Securities ex rel. Irving L. Faught, Administrator v.
Prestige Ventures Corp., Federated Management Group, Inc., Kenneth Wayne Lee and Simon Yang aka Simon Chen, Defendants
Sheila M. Lee, David A. Lee and Darren Lee, Relief Defendants
Civil Case No. 09-CV-1284

During the month of November 2009, Plaintiffs filed their Complaint for Injunctive and other Equitable Relief and for Civil Penalties in the United States District Court Western District of Oklahoma, against the defendants for violations of the Commodity Exchange Act and Commission Regulations and Oklahoma Uniform Securities Act of 2004, in connection with soliciting and accepting at least $8.7 million from at least 140 members of the general public to participate in commodity pools for trading commodity futures contracts and other financial instruments, including stocks, stock options, and foreign currency. Plaintiffs filed their ex parte motion and brief for a statutory restraining order, appointment of a temporary receiver, expedited discovery, accounting, order to show cause regarding the preliminary injunction, and other equitable relief. The motion was granted. Entries of appearance were filed by Warren F. Bickford, as counsel for the Receiver, Stephen Moriarty; Stephen Moriarty, as the Receiver; Terra Bonnell and Patricia Labarthe, as counsel for the Department; and Katherine Driscoll, as counsel for the CFTC.

During the month of December 2009, the Receiver filed notices of pendency of action as to properties located at 1660 Jorrington Street, Mt. Pleasant, South Carolina and 1912 Northwest 176th Terrace, Edmond, Oklahoma. Judge David Russell entered a Consent Order of Preliminary Injunction and other Equitable Relief as to Defendants Kenneth Lee and Yang. Defendant Yang filed his answer to the Plaintiffs' Complaint.

During the month of January 2010, the Plaintiffs filed a Motion for Clerk's Entry of Default against Kenneth Lee. The Clerk entered a default against Kenneth Lee. The Receiver filed his initial report as to discovery of assets and analysis of potential investor claims.

During the month of March 2010, the Plaintiffs filed a motion to file their first amended complaint. The motion was granted. The Plaintiffs filed a motion to amend the ex parte statutory restraining order, appointment of a temporary receiver, expedited discovery, accounting, order to show cause regarding the preliminary injunction, and other equitable relief to cover Sheila Marjorie Lee, David Armstrong Lee, and Darren Alexander Lee (collectively, "Relief Defendants") as relief defendants. The motion was granted. The Plaintiffs filed a motion for an order finding Kenneth Lee, Simon Yang, David Lee and Darren Lee in contempt of the Court's order issued on December 12, 2009. The Plaintiffs filed their first amended complaint. The Defendants filed a motion to stay the receivership of any property owned by Kenneth Lee, Sheila Lee, Darren Lee and David Lee and to allow Kenneth Lee to trade for the account of investors for purposes of repayment. The Plaintiffs filed their opposition to the Defendants' motion. Darren Lee filed his answer to the Plaintiffs' first amended complaint. Defendant Kenneth Lee and Relief Defendants David Lee, Sheila Lee and Darren Lee filed their responses to the order granting the Plaintiffs' motion to the ex parte statutory restraining order. Kenneth Lee filed his opposition to the Plaintiffs' objection to the Defendants' motion to stay the receivership. A hearing was set for the Plaintiffs' motion for contempt against Kenneth Lee, Simon Yang, David Lee and Darren Lee and the Defendant's motion to stay the receivership.

During the month of April 2010, the Plaintiffs filed their replies to Defendant Kenneth Lee's and Relief Defendants' responses to the order granting Plaintiffs' motion to the ex parte statutory restraining order. Darren Lee filed his answer to the Plaintiffs' motion to amend the ex parte statutory restraining order. The Plaintiffs filed their reply to Darren Lee's answer to amend the ex parte statutory restraining order. Responses to the amended complaint were filed by Defendant Kenneth Lee and Relief Defendants Sheila Lee and David Lee. Responses to Plaintiffs' motion for contempt against Kenneth Lee, Yang, David Lee and Darren Lee were filed by Defendant Kenneth Lee and Relief Defendants Darren Lee and David Lee. Relief Defendant Darren Lee filed his response to the Plaintiffs' objections and responses to Darren Lee's requests for documents. Requests for motion to stay the receivership were filed by the Relief Defendants. Darren Lee filed his response to the Plaintiffs' reply to his answer to the motion to amend to ex parte statutory restraining order.

During the month of May 2010, the Receiver filed a motion for an order requiring Kenneth Lee, Sheila Lee, Darren Lee and David Lee to provide proof of insurance, current payment of real estate taxes, and procedures to allow verification of the upkeep and maintenance of certain property. The Court denied the motions to stay the receivership filed by the Relief Defendants. Judge Russell issued an Order of Civil Contempt against Defendant Kenneth Wayne Lee and Relief Defendant David A. Lee. Kenneth Lee and David Lee filed their responses to the Receiver's motion for an order requiring proof of insurance, current payment of real estate taxes, and procedures to allow verification of the upkeep and maintenance of certain property. The Receiver filed his reply to Kenneth Lee's and David Lee's responses to the motion. Judge Russell declined the Receiver's motion. The Receiver filed his reports to purge the civil contempt against Kenneth Lee and David Lee.

During the month of June 2010, Relief Defendant Darren Lee filed a request for a motion of continuance. The motion was denied.

During the month of July 2010, the Plaintiffs filed a motion to strike, or in the alternative, dismiss Simon Yang's "Innocence of Charges and Compensation for Simon Yang." The motion was granted.

During the month of August 2010, Defendant Yang filed a proposal to trade commodities and other financial products in a "Test Trading Account" to be funded and controlled by Yang. In his proposal, Yang asserts that if Kenneth Lee makes monthly returns averaging 2.00% or higher during a six month trial period, Lee must be a "gifted trader" and must not have operated a Ponzi scheme. Yang proposes that in the event Lee makes such a return the Court dismiss the lawsuit. Yang further proposed that the lawsuit resume if Lee makes less than a 1% average monthly return during the six month trial period because it will have been demonstrated that Lee is not a gifted trader. Yang believes it is the responsibility of Prestige Ventures and Ken Lee to return all investors' capitals to its clients. The Plaintiffs filed their response to Yang's proposal. James H. Holl filed his Entry of Appearance as counsel for the CFTC.

During the month of September 2010, the Plaintiffs filed a motion for summary judgment against Defendants Prestige Ventures Corp., Federated Management Group, Inc., Kenneth Wayne Lee and Simon Yang and Relief Defendants Sheila M. Lee, David A. Lee, and Darren Lee. Defendant Yang filed his response to Plaintiffs' objection to his proposal. Requests for damages were filed by Darren Lee and Simon Yang. Judge Russell issued an order denying Yang's proposal. Kevin S. Webb filed his Entry of Appearance as counsel for the CFTC. The Plaintiffs filed a motion to strike, or in the alternative, dismiss Yang's request for damages. The Plaintiffs filed their response and objection to Darren Lee's request for damages.

On October 26, 2010, the Plaintiffs filed motions in limine for 1) an order deeming admitted the Plaintiff Commission's First Set of Requests for Admissions, Interrogatories, and Document Requests to Defendant Kenneth Lee, and 2) an order to preclude Defendants and Relief Defendants from presenting witnesses and exhibits in their case in chief. On October 27, 2010, Judge Russell issued an Order granting the Plaintiffs' motion for summary judgment with regard to Defendants' liability and denied Defendants Darren Lee's and Simon Yang's requests for damages.

On November 1, 2010, the Department and the CFTC filed their final pretrial report. On the same date, Judge Russell entered an order approving the Plaintiffs' pretrial report. On November 3, 2010, Defendant Darren A. Lee filed a second request for a motion for continuance. On the same date, Judge Russell denied the motion. On November 18, 2010, the Department and the CFTC filed their Proposed Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Order. On November 29, 2010, Defendant Kenneth Lee and Relief Defendants Sheila Lee, David Lee and Darren Lee filed their response to Plaintiffs' proposed finding of facts and conclusions of law.

On November 29, 2010, Judge Russell issued an Order wherein the Receiver was authorized to take possession of, market and sell the Kenneth and Sheila Lee residence, the Darren Lee residence and a boat.

Judge Russell ordered Sheila Lee to disgorge the total sum of $711,845; Darren Lee to disgorge the total sum of $638,938; and David Lee to disgorge the total sum of $574,273. Prestige, Federated, and Kenneth Lee shall, jointly and severally, pay restitution totaling $5,857,503.00 (plus pre-judgment and post-judgment interest) to the Receiver for distribution to the Prestige Enterprise investors. Prestige and Federated shall, jointly and severally, pay a civil monetary penalty in the amount of $18.2 million to the Commission, plus post-judgment interest, within ten (15) days of the date of the entry of this Order. Should Defendants Prestige and Federated not satisfy their civil monetary penalty obligation within fifteen (15) days of the date of entry of this Order, post-judgment interest shall accrue on the obligation beginning on the date of entry of this Order and shall be determined by using the Treasury Bill rate prevailing on the date of entry of this Order pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1961.

Judge Russell ordered Kenneth Lee to pay a civil monetary penalty in the amount of $7.2 million to the Commission plus post-judgment interest, within fifteen (15) days of the date of the entry of this Order. Should Kenneth Lee not satisfy his civil monetary penalty obligation within fifteen (15) days of the date of entry of this Order, post-judgment interest shall accrue on the obligation beginning on the date of entry of this Order and shall be determined by using the Treasury Bill rate prevailing on the date of entry of this Order pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1961.
