RE: Summons issued July 3, 2014
Dear Mr. Shaw and/or Ms. Commesser:

This letter response is in reference to the original Summons notice received from the Department of Securities dated July 3rd 2014. I wish to extend my thanks to you and the ODOS for giving me the grace to respond due to the multiple Surgeries I have gone through.

Please be advised, that Como Marketing LLC, Mr. Monte Morris nor myself was never willfully nor knowingly was never associated in the marketing or selling of unregistered security financial products, or acting as an unregistered agent, or perpetrating fraud in any way. Nor was we never any advertisement, or any public offering to the general public. No phone calls of solicitation or conjured activities.

For many of us the financial burdens we face inspires us to objectively look for other avenues to generate funds, through nontraditional sources of passive income opportunities to sustain our families.

I personally in 2011 was going through a very trying time with the critical illness of my Wife & best friend Mrs. Bobbie C. Coleman. We discovered she had become a victim of Small Cell Carcinoma Cancer.

With that said, I decided to look for other avenues of passive income to help offset the cost of medical bills along with hopefully allowing me to spend as much time with her as we entered into this battle for her life.

I began research into various high yield return opportunities on the internet and through personal contacts.

My Wife our Two Children, Joshua & Briana, were on the forefront of my efforts of finding a safe investment opportunity that would help ease the financial burden we would be facing.

I finally through much research found a "Financial Trade service Provider". This This High Yield investment source was non other than "Macro Trade", who at the time had a very lengthy history of payout performance for over 13 years.

I told a very good friend about it and we decided to combine our monies and effort and moved forward in a very healthy relationship with Macro Trade.

Later in 2011 my wife was going through the most difficult times, and we were doing all we could along with the help of many Doctors and Specialist I never Stopped believing My Wife would not over come this Killer of life!

On March 12th 2012 @ 7:am My Wife went home to the Father. I continued to pursue financial relief Through the Macro Trade opportunity.

The returns were as promised on time @ 2.5% compounded daily that went into an account not governed by me. I spoke to Monte about the opportunity of Macro Trade & he suggested we introduce this mining opportunity to other friends of his and mine through a Investment Club opportunity. I totally agreed that way we would not run the risk of violating S.E.C. regulations.

We had the right to invest through a Private Club of like minded individuals. Amazing opportunity with a great group of friends, through "Macro Trade".

Some of the funds that were generated prior to Como Marketing LLC, were re-invested on my my behalf. The funds that I gleaned from Macro trade were funds of a particular % agreed upon. I never personally took funds from any of the investors and invested them with "Macro Trade". An account was set up by the [illegible] their funds along with mine with my consent to "Macro Trade". Pete Monte & I introduced Como Marketing LLC as a Private Investment Club for individuals we knew personally and who would also share the Returns and the Risks as well.

It wasn't long after Como Marketing LLC was formed, Monte suddenly died - He was the President of Como Marketing LLC & Recorder Officer -

It wasn't but a few weeks later the relationship with "Macro Trade" took a turn for the worst. The returns were not coming in on time, but it was nothing real need to panic. They explained away the delay issues very professionally. It wasn't long after that the time gap grew wider & wider. I suggested to my friend they we should move monies ~~[illegible]~~ immediately, I didn't have access to the account or any of the pincodes they were removed from my control.

Interestingly enough "Macro Trade" got ha on track and all seemed to be well. It's important to understand that as long as money was experencing a healthy return no one was having a Bad Day! —

High Yield — High Risk

Now the same people who was all in on their on decision making to pocket enormous amounts of money are the same people who knew the risk at the time of involvement
The problem I have with this entire situation is everyone knew exactly what they/we were doing.

Everyone was celebrating as long as the money was flowing. No matter how long! Monte had friends he introdu ~~I to~~ Macro Trade to hopefully help make a difference in their financial situation

I lost the re-invested dollars from my %. It is not in hat I had along the others had hoped for.

Macro Trade eventually all of a sudden shut down without any communication of letting us know. Their holdings @ that time was reported to be in the high Billions from all over the world.

My greatest Loss was My Wife and the incredible Mother of our Two Awesome Children. Both are in College Joshua Arkansas University Fort Smith Briana TCC to go on to OSU hopefully — Scholarships/I didn't have the funds —

I truly regret the Loss for each and everyone of us. Fraud No Maam

We were all just everyday People trying to think outside of the Box to hopefully make it better for our families.

I'm angry as well — I loss as well —

Thanks for your consideration

Respectfully

Vernon [illegible]
