TRUSTEE'S SECOND APPLICATION TO AUTHORIZE
PAYMENT OF ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES

Janice D. Loyd, Trustee herein, respectfully prays the Court issue an Order authorizing her to pay certain administrative expenses respecting the winding down of the debtor's business operation located in Sallisaw, Oklahoma, as well as document storage, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 503(b)(1). In support of said application, the Trustee would advise the Court of the following:

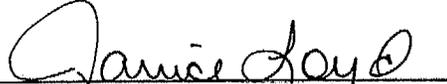

1. On April 22, 2003, B & B Worm Farms, Inc. filed for voluntary protection under Chapter 7 of the United States Bankruptcy Code.
2. On April 22, 2003, Janice D. Loyd was appointed as the Trustee to administer any assets of the bankruptcy estate.
3. Upon appointment as Trustee, Janice D. Loyd instituted an investigation into the business affairs and operations of the debtor estate. She discovered that the debtor operated a manure composting business in Sallisaw, Oklahoma. Through further investigation, the Trustee believes this business operation is a significant asset of the bankruptcy estate and should be preserved in an effort to liquidate same as an ongoing business.
4. The Trustee is in the process of soliciting bids for this operation as an ongoing business enterprise.
5. On May 21, 2003, the Court entered an Order authorizing the Trustee to pay certain ongoing administrative expenses related to the Sallisaw operation, as well as rental on storage space at First National Center until such time as the rental space is no longer necessary for the administration of this bankruptcy estate.

6. The Trustee is requesting an extension of this authority for an additional 90 days through November 30, 2003, so that she can continue her efforts to liquidate this facility. The administrative expenses requested to be paid include the following:

- a. All outstanding utility bills associated with the Sallisaw operation not to exceed $500.00 per month;
- b. All outstanding phone bills associated with the Sallisaw operation not to exceed $500.00 per month;
- c. Johnny Winkler maintenance and grounds upkeep recurring $200.00 weekly expense;
- d. Miscellaneous expenses not to exceed $1,000.00 per 30-day period;
- e. Insurance on personal property not to exceed $1,000.00 per month.

WHEREFORE, the Trustee respectfully requests the Court authorize her to pay the administrative expenses set forth above, and for such other and further relief as is just and equitable.
