NOTICE TO FILE CLAIMS

The Court gave Notice of First Meeting of Creditors on 04/25/03, and it appeared from the schedules of the debtor that there were no assets from which a dividend could be paid to the creditors. The creditors were advised that it was unnecessary to file claims in order to share in any distribution from the estate. However, it now appears that there are assets in this case from which a dividend may or may not be paid, and the creditors are hereby notified and given this opportunity to file their claims.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN to all creditors, other than governmental units, pursuant to Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 2002(e) and 3002(c)(5), that an original proof of claim and one copy must be filed within ninety (90) days after the mailing of this notice. Governmental units must file an original proof of claim and one copy within 180 days of filing of petition or order for relief or 90 days after the mailing of this notice, whichever is longer. You may obtain an official proof of claim form from local Bankruptcy Clerk or by requesting the forms at the address below and including a self-addressed, stamped return envelope. If you wish to have a stamped file copy of the proof of claim returned to you, please enclose an extra copy and a self-addressed, stamped envelope when filing.

If you send supporting documents with a proof of claim, attach copies only. Please do not send original documents. Please limit all copies of supporting documents to no more than a total of 10, single sided pages. Please use 8 1/2" x 11" paper only. Should attachments exceed a total of 10, single sided pages, send a summary only. Additional support may be filed later if necessary, in response to objections or if requested.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that a copy of this notice was mailed to all creditors, the debtor, the trustee and all other interested parties on 04/30/03.

DEADLINE TO FILE A PROOF OF CLAIM: For Creditors Other Than Governmental Units: 07/29/03
For Governmental Units:

COMMENCEMENT OF CASE. A petition for liquidation under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code has been filed in this court by or against the debtor named above, and an order for relief has been entered. You will not receive notice of all documents filed in this case. All documents filed with the court, including lists of the debtor's property and debts, are available for inspection at the office of the clerk of the bankruptcy court.

CREDITORS MAY NOT TAKE CERTAIN ACTIONS. A creditor is anyone who has a claim against the debtor. Under the Bankruptcy Code, the debtor is granted certain protection against creditors. Common examples of prohibited actions by creditors are contacting the debtor to demand repayment, taking action against the debtor to collect money owed to creditors or to take property of the debtor, and starting or continuing foreclosure actions or repossessions. If unauthorized action taken by a creditor against a debtor, the court may penalize that creditor. If the debtor is a partnership, remedies otherwise available against general partners are necessarily affected by the commencement of this partnership case. A creditor who is considering taking action against the debtor or the property of the debtor review Sec. 362 of the Bankruptcy Code and may wish to seek legal advice. The staff of the clerk of the bankruptcy court is not permitted to give such legal advice.

MEETING OF CREDITORS. The debtor's representative, as specified in Bankruptcy Rule 9001(5), is required to appear at the meeting of creditors on the date and at the place set forth above for the purpose of being examined under oath. Attendance by creditors at the meeting is welcomed, but not required. At the meeting the creditors may elect a trustee other than the one named above, elect a committee of creditors, examine the debtor, and transact such other business as may properly come before the meeting. The meeting may be continued or adjourned from time to time by notice at the meeting, without further written notice to the creditors. Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. Sec. 554(a) and Sec. 725, the trustee may, at the Meeting of Creditors, give notice of intentions to abandon property that is burdensome or of inconsequential value. The trustee may also, pursuant to Sec. 363(b) and Bankruptcy Rule 6004(c), give notice of intentions to sell, other than the ordinary course of business, property of the estate with aggregate value of less than $2500. An objection to either action must be filed within 15 days from the date of the trustee's notice.

LIQUIDATION OF THE DEBTOR'S PROPERTY. The trustee will collect the debtor's property, if any, and turn it into money. If the trustee can collect enough money and property from the debtor, creditors may be paid some or all of the debts owed to them.

PROOF OF CLAIM. Except as otherwise provided by law, in order to share in any payment from the estate, a creditor must file a proof of claim by the date set forth above labeled "Filing Claims." The place to file the proof of claim, either in person or by mail, is the office of the clerk of this bankruptcy court. Proof of Claim forms are available in the clerk's office of any bankruptcy court. If you include documents to support a claim, attach copies, not originals. Please restrict attachments to 8 1/2" x 11" single sided paper. If such documents total over 10 pages in length, please attach a summary only and file additional documents later if needed.
